OUR FAVORITE CURVES

Some pieces just stand out – and each season, our team selects their personal favorites from the collection. These styles reflect what we’re most excited about right now.

The selection includes both familiar favorites and fresh, trend-driven pieces that feel new in terms of fit, silhouette, fabric, color or detailing. Each one has been chosen for its individual appeal, whether it brings something new to the table or continues to deliver on what we know works.

Throughout the season, these favorites will receive extra attention across our social channels as part of favorite curves.
